Welcome to our new CASA Staff!

From Executive Director Katherine Carmichael, M.S. Ed., MSW, LMSW:

It gives me great pleasure to announce the recent arrival of three new team members at CASA for Children of Mercer and Burlington Counties.

Brittany holds two Associate degrees from Mercer County Community College in Business Administration and International Business. She is currently pursuing her B.A. in Human Resource Management and Organizational Management at Thomas Edison State University. Advocate Committee of the Board since the committee's inception in September 2016. However, Brittany's commitment to her community goes far beyond her service as a CASA. She has tutored adult ESL at The English School at Westminster Presbyterian Church for the past two years. While at MCCC Brittany served as both president and the state vice president for the Future Business Leaders of America-Phi Beta Lambda. In this leadership role she coordinated many blood drives for the NJ Blood Center and supported campaigns for the March of Dimes, Salvation and the American Heart Association.

About joining CASA for Children of Mercer and Burlington Counties Brittany shared "Joining the team at CASA as a staff member is incredibly rewarding. I am able to take my professional experience to help support a cause I already believe in wholeheartedly. I am excited to move forward with the rest of the CASA team to reach our goal of helping more children."

Brittany can be reached at bbayo@casamercer.org and at (609) 434-0050. She will be based in the Ewing Office and her normal work hours will be Monday-Friday from 9am-5pm.

Simone Jarvis joined CASA as an Advocate Supervisor on February 27th. Simone was most recently the Visual Manager and Volunteer Coordinator at the Target store in Burlington. While at Target, Simon was responsible for her store's volunteer program. Target strongly encourages employee participation in monthly volunteer projects and under Simone's leadership the monthly volunteer participation more than doubled. Simone was successful at increasing her store's volunteer numbers by involving more than just the management team in the monthly volunteer efforts. She accomplished this by talking with staff and creating projects that they found rewarding. Simone was recognized for her achievement with the Target "Bullseye Volunteer Hero Award" for the entire North East Region for her positive impact on the Burlington community.

Simone holds a B.A. in Marketing from the Art Institute of Philadelphia. She will be pursuing her Masters in social work this fall at Rutgers School of Social Work. Simone like Brittany first came to CASA as an advocate and will continue to serve as an advocate in Burlington County. In addition to volunteering with CASA she has volunteered as a Production Assistant with Beyond Expectations a local nonprofit that provides teens with marketable life skills through hands on media education and service leadership and as an Annual Team Captain for Making Strides Against Breast Cancer with the American Cancer Society.

When asked about her transition from volunteer Advocate to an Advocate Supervisor Simone says that "Being a part of CASA is honestly my dream job, I wanted to be in a position to learn about helping all children receive equal access to everything they deserve. My passion has become my 9-5."

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month!

Visit National CASA or The Children's Bureau for more information.

Simone can be reached at sjarvis@casamercer.org and at (609) 265-2222. She will be based in the Mt. Holly office and her normal work hours will be Monday-Friday from 8:30am-4:30pm.

Cherish the Child Awardee, Tony Baxter

Anthony (Tony) Baxter is a one-of-a-kind person who has made a lifelong commitment to public service in his communities. On February 4th, he reached his 4 year anniversary as a volunteer Quiana Gleaves joined CASA as an Advocate Supervisor on March 3rd. Quiana comes to CASA from New Jersey Mentor where she began as a Community Outreach Worker and served most recently as a Case Manager.

Quiana holds a Masters in Social Work from Temple University and a B.A. in Social Work from Rutgers University. She brings a broad range of advocacy and child welfare experience.

While at Temple, Quiana completed her clinical internship as a Children's Therapist with New Jersey Mentor. At Rutgers she worked at Newton Street School as a Classroom Aid and interned as a School Social Worker. During her time at Newtown Street School Quiana started and supervised the Backpack Program that provided food and supplies to children in need. Quiana spent a year working in a youth shelter in Newark which provided her with valuable experience with one of our most vulnerable populations.

"I am excited about joining CASA and being able to continue to advocate in the best interest of our youth and learning about the different parties (DCPP, DAG, LG, Defense Attorneys) that are involved, that are all working together to make sure that the children are in the most productive, loving environment" expressed Quiana about her new role.

Quiana can be reached at ggleaves@casamerger.org and at \(609\) 265-2222. She will be based in the Mt. Holly office and her normal work hours will be Monday-Friday from 8:30am-4:30pm.

Laura Fitzgerald, PhD is CASA's New Director of Training and Evaluation

I'm thrilled to announce that Laura Fitzgerald, PhD has been promoted from Advocate Supervisor to the newly created Director of Training and Evaluation role at CASA. Laura has been with CASA for over five years as an Advocate Supervisor based in Mt. Holly. She holds a PhD in Counseling Psychology and an MS in Psychology from Walden University in Minneapolis, MN and a BA in Psychology from Rutgers, Camden, NJ.

Prior to CASA, Laura's professional experience also includes serving as a Case Manager with Family Service and Family Preservation Counselor with the Center for Family Services.

for CASA for Children of Mercer and Burlington Counties. Since entering the role, he has served 5 different adolescents in foster care, including the youth he works with today. Tony is not afraid to speak up for what is right on the youth's behalf and has a history of maintaining strong relationships with some of the children he's worked with and who have aged out of the foster care system. For instance, CASA was having difficulty assigning a volunteer to work with a particular youth who had a history of behavioral and anger management issues. Prior to Tony being assigned, the child had experienced 5 different CASA volunteers. However, Tony was in it for the long haul. Not only did he stick with the youth until his case had come to an end, Tony maintained a mentor relationship with them, well into their young adulthood. We truly believe that Tony's dedication to working with this youth helped ensure that the youth continued to thrive, even after leaving foster care.

In October, Tony took a case that seemed to have everything stacked against it. The youth had behavioral concerns and no family connections. He was living in a residential facility outside of Mercer County that would require Tony to drive over 100 miles back and forth for visits. When the case was offered to Tony, he didn't think twice; he took it immediately. Since that first day, Tony has never missed a meeting, phone call, or visit on behalf of the child;

In this role Laura will be responsible for developing, implementing, evaluating and improving our advocate pre-service and in-service training. She will be responsible for restoring our "Graduate Level" series in areas such as Educational Advocacy, Medical Advocacy, Cultural Competency, Mental Health and Fostering Futures Adolescent training. In addition to internal training, Laura will keep all staff and advocates aware of relevant external training opportunities. By having a full-time Director of Training and Evaluation we will be able to greatly increase the number of trainings offered each month in both counties. This will begin with Educational and Medical Advocacy and monthly "Air and Share" Trainings and expand to include monthly motivational, technical and content specific offerings by the fall. The goal of this new position is also to broaden our training initiatives to include offerings open to the public and community stakeholders such as a monthly speaker series on child welfare topics and an annual conference for volunteers.

Laura can be reached at lfitzgerald@casamercer.org and at (609) 265-2222. She will divide her time between the Mt. Holly and the Ewing offices.

Renee Paci as CASA's New Program Director

It gives me great pleasure to announce Renee Paci as CASA's new Program Director. Renee holds a B.A. in Criminal Justice from Stockton University and served as CASA's Senior Case Supervisor in Burlington County for nearly two years. In addition to her work with CASA Renee brings over 17 years of diverse child welfare and advocacy experience to her new role.

Renee officially began as Program Director February 24th but had been serving as the Interim Supervisor of the Mercer program since February 1st following former Mercer Senior Case Supervisor Farrah Seidler's moving on. In this newly created role Renee is responsible for the implementation and supervision of all Mercer and Burlington program operations including supervision of all full-time and two part-time Advocate Supervisors. She serves as the main program liaison with Mercer County and Burlington County courts as well as Mercer and Burlington DCP&P offices. Having one Director over both county programs supports our goal of unifying the organization. As Senior Case Supervisor in Burlington, Renee has successfully strengthened CASA's relationships with both DCP&P and the CIC Teams. Renee has hit the ground running and has sometimes driving multiple times per week. In this scenario, he goes above and beyond the call of duty when it comes to advocating for this youth and helping to ensure he has a bright future.

Prior to being a CASA Volunteer, Tony worked in public education for 38 years and served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. In public education, Tony has experience teaching youth in grades all the way from Middle School to College. Tony also served for many years a Vice Principal for a Middle/High School in Massachusetts. During his tenure at the school, he was able to help them reduce their dropout rates, including at one point, to 0%. He has been a tutor, Athletic Director, coach, and mentor for youth in his almost 40 years of service. From his caring, compassionate nature to his lifelong dedication to serving children and their families, please join us at CASA for Children of Mercer and Burlington Counties in congratulating Tony Baxter on receiving this prestigious award.

already begun working on implementing similar successful collaborations and practices in Mercer.

Renee can be reached at rpaci@casamercer.org and at (609) 265-2222. She will divide her time between the Mt. Holly and the Ewing offices.

This may include advocating for services such as tutoring or more in-depth special education needs the child may have.

Emergency Bags: To be used when a child is in crisis, removed from the home, enters foster care or enters a homeless or domestic violence shelter. Bags are customized by gender (when appropriate) and for the following age groups: Infant, 3-5, 6-8, 9-11, 12-18.

Activity Bags: Useful as an ice breaker if visiting your child for the first time, or anytime you feel it would benefit him or her. Bags are customized by gender (when appropriate) and for ages 3-5 or 6-8.

The Bag Project Mission: The Bag Project seeks to provide every child in crisis with a high-quality, age-appropriate bag filled with basic necessities and comfort items which they may not otherwise receive.
